v.

THE WACKENHUT CORPORATION,

Defendant.

COMPLAINT AND DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

DEMAND FOR JURY

Pursuant to Rule 38(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Plaintiffs by and through their attorneys, GALLO & IACOVANGELO, LLP, hereby demand a trial by jury on all legal issues to be determined herein.

COMPLAINT

The above-named Plaintiffs, employees or former employees of Defendant, Wackenhut Corporation, by and through their attorneys, GALLO & IACOVANGELO, LLP, bring this action on behalf of themselves and other employees similarly situated, to recover unpaid minimum wages, overtime compensation, liquidated damages, and attorney's fees and costs, under the provisions of Section 16(b) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended [29 U.S.C.A. § 216(b)], and Section 650, et seq. of New York State Labor Law (the Minimum Wage Act) (hereinafter referred to as the "FLSA" and the "NYMWA" respectively). Plaintiffs do hereby allege upon information and belief the following:

- 1. Jurisdiction of this action is conferred on this Court by Section 16(b) of the FLSA [29 U.S.C.A. § 216(b)], and by the provisions of 28 U.S.C.A. § 1337, relating to "any civil action or proceeding arising under any Act or Congress regulating commerce." Jurisdiction over the Plaintiffs' related claim under the NYMWA is further conferred on this Court by the provisions of 28 U.S.C.A. §1367.
- 2. The Plaintiffs are and were at all relevant times residents of the State of New York. Annexed collectively hereto and incorporated herein by referenced as Exhibit "A" are Consent to Become Party Plaintiff forms duly executed by each of the Plaintiffs to this action pursuant to 29 U.S.C.A. §216(b).
- 3. Venue is appropriately placed in this judicial district, pursuant to 28 U.S.C.A., §§ 1391(b) and (c), due to the residence of the Plaintiffs, the residence of the Defendant and the events or omissions giving rise to the claims asserted herein.

- 4. The Defendant, Wackenhut Corporation (hereinafter referred to as "Wackenhut"), is a corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Florida, with its principal place of business located in the city of Palm Beach Gardens, State of Florida, within the territorial jurisdiction of this Court.
- 5. At all relevant times, the Plaintiffs and others similarly situated were employed by Wackenhut within the meaning of § 3(d) of the FLSA [29 U.S.C.A. § 203(d)] and §651(6) of the NYMWA, in that Wackenhut acted directly in the interest of itself in relation to its employees, including Plaintiffs and others similarly situated.
- 6. At all relevant times, Wackenhut was engaged in the business of providing security services and in activities performed through unified operation or common control for a common business purpose, having employees engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce, or employees handling, receiving, selling or otherwise working on goods or materials that have been moved in or produced for commerce; and having annual gross volume of sales made or business done of not less than $100,000.00, and therefore constitutes an enterprise engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce within the meaning of 3(r) and (s) of the FLSA [29 U.S.C.A §203(r), (s)].
- 7. At all relevant times, each and every Plaintiff was employed by the Defendant as a security guard and worked at the Ginna Nuclear Power Plant facility, 1503 Lake Road, Ontario, New York, located in the State of New York, County of Wayne. Plaintiffs qualify as employees for the purposes of the FLSA and the NYMWA.

AS AND FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

- 8. The Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs "1" through "7" above with the same force and effect as though set forth at length herein.
- 9. During the period from March 23, 2004, to the present time, or during portions of such period, Wackenhut employed Plaintiffs and others similarly situated in various occupations in connection with the business of Wackenhut. Contrary to the requirements of Section 6 of the FLSA [29 U.S.C.A. § 206], Wackenhut willfully failed to pay each Plaintiff their respective wages and overtime compensation for periods of time which each Plaintiff suffered and which Wackenhut permitted Plaintiffs to work, including, but not limited to, periods of time for arming up and checking through security and arming down.

- 10. During the periods from March 23, 2004, to the present time, or during portions of such period, Wackenhut employed Plaintiffs and others similarly situated, who were engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce, as described in the preceding paragraph, for many workweeks longer than forty (40) hours, and failed and refused to compensate Plaintiffs and others similarly situated for such work in excess of forty (40) hours at rates not less than one and one-half times the regular rates at which they were employed, contrary to the requirements of Section 7 of the FLSA [29 U.S.C.A. § 207].
- 11. As the result of the underpayment and non-payment of wages and overtime compensation, Wackenhut is indebted to each and every Plaintiff in an amount to be determined at trial.

AS AND FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

- 12. The Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs "1" through "11" above with the same force and effect as though set forth at length herein.
- 13. During the periods from March 23, 2001 to the present time, or during portions of such period, Wackenhut employed Plaintiffs and other similarly situated in various occupations in connection with the business of Wackenhut. During the respective periods of their employment, Wackenhut employed Plaintiffs and others similarly situated in the aforesaid enterprise and willfully failed to pay them wages and overtime compensation for periods of time which they suffered and permitted Plaintiffs to work, including, but not limited to, periods of time for arming up and checking through security and arming down, contrary to the requirements of §652 of the NYMWA (19 NY Ann. §652).

14. As the result of the underpayment and non-payment of wages and overtime compensation, Wackenhut is indebted to each and every Plaintiff in an amount to be determined at trial.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiffs demand judgment as against Wackenhut, in the amount due each Plaintiff for overtime compensation, minimum wages, liquidated damages (or interest), plus costs under the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended, and New York's Minimum Wage Act, together with reasonable attorney's fees and for such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.
